PENINSULA SOCIAL MISCELLANY

Short Paragraphs of Personal and Social Events Among Our Neighbors Across the Halifax.

Mr. C. D. Abernethy, who has been on a visit to his parents here, returned Monday to resume his work in Birmingham, Ala.

The dance at Keating's Saturday night was quite well attended in spite of the inclement weather, about twenty couples being present.

The Thursday evening card parties at the Kennie are quite a social enjoyment. Eight tables were played last week.

Quite a number of the auto racers have arrived and the beach is crowded with people all the time watching them running up and down the beach.

The dance at the Armory Thursday evening was well attended by the Seabreeze young folks.

Miss Bell Caverhill is on the sick list this week. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Susie Phelps, of Springfield, Mass., arrived Friday afternoon and will remain all winter. She spent last season here and made many friends.

We are glad to report Mrs. A. M. Sims much improved.

Quite a serious accident happened Sunday morning. Two of Mr. Haigh's horses got frightened at some object and ran away. Mr. Bailey, the toll keeper, attempted to stop them and one of the horses kicked him in the side, breaking three ribs. We hope his injury will not prove fatal.

The two room addition to Mr. Wesley Herdick's cottage is almost completed and is quite an improvement.

Mortimer Courtney left this week for Miami, where he goes to accept a position.

The foundation is being laid for Dr. Van Valzah's residence. The house is to be of coquina rock, and will be quite a handsome structure.

The "Trip Around the World," which was given Monday evening was a great success, although there would have been a much larger crowd had the weather been better. About eighty some odd dollars was realized.

Miss Helen Carpenter, of New York, has organized a class in dancing, physical culture and the german, at the opera house. The first lessons were given Saturday afternoon.

The new rec organ has arrived for the Methodist church and will soon be in working order so it can be used for Conference.

J. C. Butler is building a five-room cottage near Goodall postoffice.

Miss F. E. Fish, of New York, and Miss M. A. Jones, of Boston, are at the Whittemburg.

Mrs. J. Allen and daughters, the Misses Lillian and Burnice, of Washington, D. C., are here for the winter. They are stopping at The Glenwood.

The orchestra for the Clarendon has arrived and every afternoon and evening beautiful music can be heard in the parlor of that hotel.

The ground is being cleared for the new Congregational church.

Proposed Concert.

Wilford Russell, baritone versatile, of London, England, vaudeville entertainer from Keith's theatre, etc., will render an up to date program in St. Mary's Hall, Orange avenue, Jan. 30, to aid fund for building an Episcopal church at Seabreeze.

A Criticism.

A correspondent from Ormond, in a letter dated January 19, makes the following criticism:

"I am not at all stuck on the way the editor of The Daily News—a good many people call it the 'Guess at the News,'—puts the auto races before the people. All other papers in Florida refer to the Ormond-Daytona beach, but The News puts it the Daytona-Ormond beach. Now then please tell me or show me where in h— did Daytona ever have a beach. I have been a subscriber a good many years but if this thing goes on you may as well take my name off the subscription list."

For obvious reasons we do not mention our correspondent's name. We will bear the subject in mind, however, and when we have leisure a good Government surveyor will be asked to make the dividing line, if he is able to locate Ormond beach.

An Old Favorite

YOUTH AND AGE

By Charles Kingsley

NO writer in the language has shown a greater power of description than Kingsley. Landscape, beast and bird are invested with poetic charm. . . . The verdict of time has placed Kingsley among the minor poets. His genius was not equal to a sustained flight. He will be best remembered by those short dramatic lyrics which he sang in measures approaching perfection. —Warner's Library of the World's Best Literature.

WHEN all the world is young, lad,
And everything is green,
And every goose a swan, lad,
And every lass a queen,
Then boot, lad, and horse, lad,
And round the world away,
And go it while you're young, lad—
Each dog must have his day.

When all the world gets old, lad,
And all the trees turn brown,
And all the jests get stale, lad,
And all the wheels run down,
Then lie back to thy home, lad—
The maimed and sick among;
Thank God! if then you find one face
You loved when you were young.

What Caused It.

"How came you to this?"
"Well, boss, I s'pose I wuz allus a bad egg, an' den I wuz in a bad set too!"—San Francisco Examiner.

Another Edition.

"Where have you been until this late hour?" asked the wife of a literary man, when he came home in the wee small hours.

"Oh, I've been sitting up with a sick friend," replied the man, hanging his hat on the gas jet.

"If any one should ask you, dear, don't forget to tell him that that is the forty-fifth edition of that particular piece of your fiction."—Yonkers Statesman.

The Honest Marketman.

"I declare!" exclaimed the marketman, consulting his order sheet. "Here's Mrs. Enseigh's order for a five pound roast, and I promised she should not have to wait more than ten minutes for it, and she gave the order two hours ago. Well, I must keep my word and give her a short weight."

Saying which, he weighed his hand in with the roast.—Chicago Tribune.

Tommy Gets Information.

Tommy Figgjam—Paw, what is a "high crime?"
Faw Figgjam—One that costs the public many thousands to prove that the criminal was insane and many hundreds more to keep the influential prisoner in an asylum instead of hanging him.—Baltimore American.

Gathering Windom.

"All I need," remarked the college youth who was taking an examination, "is a little time to collect my thoughts." From various pockets and other places of concealment he drew a number of eribs.

He passed.—Cleveland Leader.

Bluffed Out.

Miss Listener—Then you didn't join that philanthropic organization?
Mrs. Chatterbox—No; when I intimated to the ladies that I wanted to do something for charity one of them suggested that I might begin by holding my tongue.—Detroit Free Press.

The Drummer's Narrow Escape From Prison

"I SUPPOSE there comes to every man a desire to do something smart on an occasion," said the drummer as a sigh took the place of his smile.

"Well, such a desire came to me as I was leaving a certain southern city after a week's stay. The waiter at my table had called me 'general' and been at great pains to care for me, and I made up my mind to reward him with a five dollar bill. It was a counterfeit with which I had been struck, but I thought it would be the biggest kind of a joke to work it off on Bob. He almost rubbed the floor with his nose in his delight, and I went my way chuckling over the 'sell.'"

"And did it turn out to be funny?" was asked.

"I will let you judge of that. I had got a hundred miles away when I was arrested on a telegram for passing counterfeit money, and when taken back I was arraigned in a United States court and had to give bail and appear on three different occasions. I had a lawyer and other expenses, lost a good three weeks altogether and just escaped prison by the skin of my teeth. In addition to this I had to make good to the waiter, who sorrowfully shook his head when he received the money and said:

"It's sorry for you, general, but dis may be de means of savin' your contemptible soul from the gallus!"—Brooklyn Citizen.

Trying It on the Dog.

As he came toward her down the hill, his great dog Caesar ambling at his side, she, the friend of his parents, said to herself with emotion that she had never beheld so graceful, so lovable, a child.

He held out his hand as he approached, disclosing within its palm a somewhat shapeless chocolate cream. This he affectionately pressed upon her. Thinking to please him, she took it and, as he seemed not quite satisfied, proceeded to eat it. When she had finished, "Did you like it?" he asked earnestly.

"Very much," she answered, smiling. "Well," he said slowly, "I'm glad you liked it, because Caesar didn't!"—Lippincott's Magazine.

A Conscientious Architect.

Caller—I have $10,000 to put into a house, and I wish to select a design.
Honest Architect—Yes, sir. John, show the gentleman the plans of our $3,000 houses.—New York Weekly.

He Spoke From Experience.

"Colonel, do you think there is any money in horse racing?"
"Yes, indeed. All mine is."—New York Times.

M. E. Church Supper.

The bazaar and supper held by the ladies of the First M. E. Church at the Armory last night returned more money and was better patronized than was anticipated.

The hall was beautifully decorated and the different booths presented a very attractive and alluring appearance. The Japanese and fancy article booths deserve especial mention for the careful and tasteful arrangement. To Mrs. McMurray, who had general charge of the affair, is due much of the credit for the excellent results, she having devoted much of her time to insure this result.

It was estimated last night that the Japanese booth, presided over by Mrs. Pitcher, had netted about $10. The supper tables cleared at least $100 and the fancy article booth, presided over by Mrs. Geo. Doane, had taken in $25. No returns could be obtained from the candy booth.

Specialties of The Show.

Conspicuous among the many specialties of the Miles Orton show is the barrel jumping feat of Jacobs and McCue. This is a very difficult stunt but is performed with ease by the nimble twain.

To jump into a barrel and out again is no simple trick, but this pair jump from barrel to barrel and travel up a stairway while doing it. They conclude on the top of a table by both leaping into the last barrel from opposite sides simultaneously.

The Bremen musical team also deserves special mention. It is composed of Miss Maud and Ed. Bremen. They are artists of rare talent.

Ed. Johnson, the clown who keeps the audience in an uproar of laughter, is another star of the show.

The attendance last night was a repetition of the previous evening, the tiers of benches being well filled but not uncomfortably crowded.—St. Augustine Record.

E. A. Briggs, of New York, has arrived for another winter's visit. He is, as heretofore, a guest at The Ridgewood.

Library Association.

On Thursday, Jan. 12, the annual meeting of the Library Association was held at the residence of Mrs. E. T. Conrad, at which the following officers were elected: J. N. Gamble, president; Rev. C. W. Arnold, vice president; Mrs. Graham Thompson, treasurer; Mrs. Wm. Atwood, secretary; Mrs. L. O. Rawson, Mrs. Laurence Thompson, Mrs. E. T. Conrad, Miss M. C. Wilder and Miss Genevieve Robinson, trustees.

The treasurer's report was received, as follows:

Balance Jan. 12, 1904.....$81.55
Receipts: Subscriptions & fines.....159.33
B & L dividends.....36.87
Donation from Mr. Gamble.....100.00
Donation to building fund.....435.00
Total.....813.25
Expenditures: Librarian's sal.....138.00
Electric lighting.....18.00
Reading room supplies.....10.80
Books and magazines.....88.81
Insurance for 3 years.....15.90
B & L stock.....450.00
Total.....721.51
Balance Jan. 11, 1905.....391.74
The building fund consists of $750 invested in B & L stock, and $48.75 of the above balance, which is to be invested in stock as soon as it amounts to $50. The balance available for general purposes of the library is therefore only $42.99, $38.56 less than at this time last year.

Respectfully submitted,

May E. Thompson, Treasurer.

The above report shows that the yearly expenses of librarian's salary and lighting are barely covered by the annual subscriptions, and that the other expenses have not been covered even by the liberal donation of Mr. Gamble, who for nine years has been contributing annually the same sum. It is clear that unless more interest is taken in the work of the association by the people of the city there is no hope of being able to erect a building for many years. The reading room and library have been patronized by increasing numbers each year, which shows that they are needed.

It seems that a strong effort ought to be made at once, as it is very uncertain how long we may be able to retain the use of the present room. It is, therefore, very desirable that all who are willing to help should at once make known to the treasurer, or one of the officers, the amount they are willing to subscribe.

D. P. Smith and wife, Newark, N. J.; S. Fred Cummings, Miss Baker, Miss G. Baker, Port Orange; L. W. Lawton, Boston; A. Salliday and wife, Watertown, Wis.; Dr. Paul Cohn, Austria; F. J. Buckley, Bay City, Mich., are Desland guests.

The Gazette-News

THE GAZETTE-NEWS is a weekly newspaper published at Daytona, Florida, by Geo. F. Crouch, in the interest of Daytona and vicinity, is Democratic in political flavor, and is an advocate of prosperity, peace and good roads for our citizens. Its columns are devoted to bringing before our readers a brief and authentic account of the happenings of this place and of the adjoining communities. Our local writers are ever on the lookout for news items and are assisted by good correspondents from all nearby towns.

The Northerner who spends his winters here, the seasonal winter resident, or those who are now making their first visit to our City, could invest no money where it would give them greater enjoyment for a year than $1.50 spent for a subscription to the GAZETTE-NEWS. In the course of a year it will tell the Northern reader what Daytona really is, and if our section of the country would be better suited to him than his present location.

As to health, we firmly believe that Daytona is as healthy a location as any spot in the United States, and is briefly quoted as "Daytona is best Paradise regained." To tell even briefly our advantages over other sections of the country in health, investments, pleasures, and a place one can call home, would consume too much space. And as a suggestion for your personal enjoyment and business relations in the South, that you subscribe now for the GAZETTE-NEWS. We would be pleased to count you as a "Daytona advocate" and a GAZETTE-News Reader.

Daytona Daily News

Published Daily Except Sunday.
Issued from JANUARY 1 to APRIL 1st, DAYTONA, FLORIDA, BY 1887. F. CROUCH, Editor and Proprietor.
Subscription—The Daily News for the Season. By Carrier 15 cents a Week.
(Entered as second-class matter January 1, 1904, at the postoffice at Daytona, Florida, under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.)

Lost—Small auto gear wheel, reward if returned the Bilgwood, E. D. Langworthy.

Mrs. Wm. Johnson, of Port Orange, is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. E. Long.

Miss Caroline McDonald, of Port Orange, is spending a week with her brother, Capt. Chas. McDonald.

C. Chase, Belknap Falls, Va.; H. L. Hall and wife, Geo. F. Marsh, Chester, Va.; who have been touring the State, have arrived from Havana and are guests of The Palmetto.

The launch, Enna, J. A. Lovelace, owner, has been thoroughly overhauled at McDonald's boat yard. The engine was installed, and the boat enlarged and painted throughout.

E. A. Briggs, a wealthy gentleman from New York, is here to back E. C. Bald. Mr. Briggs is the builder and former owner of the Briggs House, a famous Chicago hotel.

For Story—A purse with small sum of money at Armore last night. Owner can have same by describing and paying for this notice. Call at Rev. J. K. Trevel.

Mrs. Helen Roberts and Miss Helen A. Roberts, of Grand Rapids, Mich., are at The Palmetto. Mrs. Roberts and her daughter are regular winter visitors here and their friends welcome them with pleasure.

As a result of not observing the rules of the road, keep to the right and keep your car, a French machine from Ormond, came very near running down a Cadillac yesterday, as which were Ed. Langworthy, Percy Rodgers and S. W. Mosely. The prompt action of Chiefeur Lindberg saved the party.

Fingers Mashed Off.
Mr. King of New York, brought down a handsome launch, in which to tour the waterways of Florida. After an extended trip up the St. Johns river he returned to Orlando and had his boat handed out to be hauled overland to Daytona.

The boat was loaded on a two-horse wagon and no trouble was experienced until near the Ponce de Leon bridge the hind axle of the wagon broke, throwing the negro driver out and plunging his hand between a tree and the boat.

Chas. McDonald and Henry Titus went out with a wagon and brought the boat and the unfortunate driver to this city. Dr. Bennett found the injured man's fingers so badly crushed that he may lose them.

The launch had two holes stove in her sides and otherwise badly injured. McDonald's boat yard proved a good hospital for the vessel, which is now ready for the water.

Scatter the Flowers.
The names of the many racers and the drivers of them are familiar to many of the citizens, but how many know or even think of the mechanics? These men accompany the machines in all the mess and spring trials and between times repair and clean them up. They stand as a body guard at all hours, day and night, looking after the machine as no race horse was ever guarded.

Go to the Florida Motor Co.'s garage when the machines are not racing and work on them. Men of first class mechanics, hard at work, dirty and grime with the grease and dirt, waiting to be cleaned up by their respective cars may win. Taking as much pride in the appearance and performance of their cars as do the owners, yet they reap not one iota of the glory.

H. Robinson of New York, the mechanic for Hawley's big Mercedes car, is always on hand and ever ready to answer questions, even if they are idiotic. He cuts his meals on the ground, and we would not be surprised if he slept side by side with his pet.

Alvin A. Reed, also a New Yorker, is employed by Christie as a mechanic in the shops when not out on a job. He is a clean, well-dressed and seldom laughs, but is approachable and full of information, which he is ready to impart. He is an indefatigable worker, ever keeping his racer in fine fettle.

Albert Beckwith, of Cleveland, is the Green Dragon's hostler and that means work for Barney is a hard driver. Albert, though a small and apparently young man, is possessed of sufficient firm and knowledge to hold down his end of the racing job.

Our Item Boxes.
For the convenience of those who have items of news for us, we have placed "Item Boxes" at convenient places about the city. They are located as follows:

"Walk up gents and buy a ticket for the great dog and badger fight! Only 25 cents! Come on! Come on! Show your sporting blood!"

Promptly at eight o'clock last night the doors were open to admit the large crowd present to see the fight. The marshal was on hand to prevent brutality and warned the promoters. The pen had been built and the badger concealed in a large box all afternoon.

Mr. Ledwith brought along his dog, which was substituted for Hoffman's "Snip" which was sick.

Messrs. Hoffman and Snell then announced the conditions of the bet between themselves and Oldfield and they, with the referee, C. Cohen, then lined up and Photographer Kaiser took a picture of the group with the dog at their feet.

After a fierce battle Cohen decided the fight a draw—he doing the drawing.

Ask the boys who were there about it, though it is doubtful if they will tell; the joke is too severe on Cohen and the local sports (?) who were not wise.

Have you noticed the difference in the beach approach to the south and the other approaches? The south trail approach is free from sand and is kept to by W. W. Lee, with the south bridge tender, not because it is a part of his duty but as an aid to the many passengers who cross there. Mr. Ledwith should be expended a wide of thanks.

A Bit of Masonic History. An interesting bit of Masonic history was brought to light when a Times City reporter was getting the names of delegates to the Grand Lodge, names and numbers from the grand secretary. Noting that the number "78" had been omitted from the list, he asked if it was intentional. "Yes, and thereby hangs a tale," replied Secretary Webster. It happened in this way: Phoenix Lodge in the state of Florida.

In 1825, a disputation was granted creating Orion Lodge No. 8, at Pleasant Grove, or Atapulgus, in the state of Georgia. In 1840 the disputation was continued and in 1841 a charter was granted. In 1842 its name was changed, categorically to "Orion," and its locality had been changed to Daytona, Fla.

In 1843, as the result of a fraternal correspondence between the grand lodges of Georgia and Florida, the latter was reached and transferred the introduction to the former.

The 1844, upon a very formal letter from the M. W. of Orion Lodge, stating its acceptance of the Grand Lodge of Georgia and regarding the course which reconstituted the transfer, the following, among other resolutions, was adopted: Resolved, That No. 8 shall not be appropriated to any other lodge under the jurisdiction of the grand lodge, and that the master, wardens and representatives of Orion Lodge shall ever be entitled to honorary membership in this grand lodge.

The said Orion Lodge, No. 8, is still working in the city of Jacksonville, under the venerable Grand Lodge of Georgia, still retaining its original name and franchise.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its widest expanse and midway between its source at Babow Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29° seventy-four miles from St. Augustine and one mile from the Atlantic ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the cities of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high hammock land that was crowned by nature with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these is the town of today, with its beautiful cottages and well-graded streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lovely live oaks and live oaks, and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of mossy Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walk, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palmettos, glossy-leaved magnolias, fragrant bay and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the amplexoid climber cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all 100 feet wide, except Beach street, which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half mile of open, beautiful water sloping upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breezes from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well-graded, marled and shelled roads and streets, rendering it the

and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages
that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinements of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, taly Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

Water Supply
which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This flow is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,500. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach

lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect in comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.

The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bare for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palm-fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at ebb tide, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the grey-haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer, can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula

lying between river and ocean is one-half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, an opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature

at Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected for homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying. Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona.

At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavalle, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon, individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river.

Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.
